All Investigators must answer the following question:

Do you, your spouse/domestic partner or dependent children have any Significant Financial Interests related to your Institutional Responsibilities?*

*See next page for definitions. Yes No

If you answered YES, a 910 addendum will need to be submitted to ORCA.

Required Training: The same people who are required to disclose their financial interests must also complete a training session prior to participating in research related to any PHS-funded project. By reading and acknowledging understanding of the attached materials you will fulfill this obligation.

Under the PHS Rules, all Investigators must disclose Significant Financial Interests (SFI) when a financial interest:

1) reasonably appears to be related to or is in the same field of expertise as your institutional responsibilities – which include the teaching/education, research, outreach, clinical services, and University and public service you perform in the course and scope of your UCSC appointment, AND

2) meets any of the following reporting categories and thresholds:

- Income received from a publicly traded entity during the 12 months prior to disclosure which, when combined with the value of any equity interest you hold in the entity, exceeds $5,000.
- Income received from a non-publicly traded entity during the 12 months prior to disclosure that exceeds $5,000 OR any equity interest you hold in that entity.
- Income received from an entity, other than UC, for intellectual property rights and interests during the 12 months prior to disclosure that exceeds $5,000. This could include royalties for books, or license fees for software or technology you may have invented before you came to UCSC.
- Travel paid for or reimbursed by a for-profit or non-profit entity, including professional organizations and foreign universities, that exceeds $5,000 per entity per 12 month period.

Investigator is defined as any personnel on a PHS funded project who is responsible for the design, conduct, or reporting of the research.

A financial interest is defined as anything of monetary value, whether that value can be easily determined or not, that is held by you, your spouse or registered domestic partner, and dependent children.

You should keep in mind that SFIs do not include:

- Mutual funds or other investment vehicles such as retirement funds as long as you do not directly control the investment decisions.
- Payments made to you by UC for salary, stipends, royalties, honoraria, reimbursements of expenses or any other remuneration received from the University.
- Income for seminars, lectures, teaching engagements, or service on advisory committees or review panels sponsored by federal, state or local governments, a US institution of higher education, or a research institute, academic medical center or hospital that is affiliated with a US institution of higher education.
- Travel costs paid for or reimbursed by federal, state or local governments, a US institution of higher education, or a research institute, academic medical center or hospital that is affiliated with a US institution of higher education.
- Reimbursed travel that totals less than $5,000 per entity per 12 month period.
